

Team Building Series Design, Dye, and Dress! 【Making Ryukyu Dress】

The program includes designing and making Okinawa's traditional costume called "Uchakki"- worn for Eisa Dance and Kumiodori Classic Dance- by using pattern papers, brushes, and coloring pigments.

Participants experience "fun for coloring" and "fun for designing". This team building program matures participants' creativity, teamwork and competitiveness. This program can be operated as a part of your entertainment element by combining it with a fashion show or music performance at a party.

Contents Superiority

This program gives you the feel of Okinawan culture and allows flexibility to combine with other programs!

- Indoor program which is unaffected by weather.
- Capable of operating at any venue from hotel ballroom to public facility.
- Hands-on experience in making Bingata costume and wear it at once.
- Can expand the program to Eisa Dance experience or Ryukyu fashion show
- Unlimited number of participants

