

【Traditional Ryukyu House】

Producing relaxed entertainment which is the origin of Okinawa

Okinawa is famous for its ratio of repeat visitors which exceeds 70%. Surely, the hospitality and entertainment of Okinawa catches the hearts of these many repeat visitors. In this theme, a traditional home with red tile roof built in a unique style of architecture is used as the venue. These types of houses are also popular among the Japanese. The traditional home is great for relaxed entertaining while providing old Okinawa life style experience. After enjoying traditional dishes which are essential to Okinawa people and folk songs played on a sanshin guitar, every participant will get the opportunity to try their hand at "Kachashi" dancing which has the meaning of mixing together. This event is great for uniting participants in common harmony.

【World Heritage Site Ryukyu Old Castle】

Entertainment with special treatment in a World Heritage site

Famous castle ruins in Okinawa, which is a World Heritage site, are used for this venue. The gently curving stonewall of the castle provides a very elegant atmosphere as the background of the party venue. Luxurious touches can be found in all facets of the food, drink, service, and attractions.
